

Website Security

Your Security

At Harvard Federal Credit Union, we are committed to protecting your privacy. We have created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for our web site:

- Visitors to the Harvard FCU web site will remain anonymous. We do not collect personal identifying information about our visitors to our site.
- We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our web site. Our servers collect standard identifying information about visitors to the site, such as date and time visited, IP address, city, state, and country. This information is used to compile standard statistics on site usage.
- If you have provided identification (such as name and address) via e-mail or information request forms the information will only be used to communicate with you to handle your request. It is not sold or transferred to other parties unless required by law or court order.
- This site contains links to web sites. Harvard FCU is not responsible for the practices or the content of such web sites.
- We caution members to avoid transmitting confidential information over the internet unless the transmission is done within a secured area. Neither on-line applications or e-mail messages are secure communication channels. To safeguard your privacy, any message containing confidential information should be printed and then faxed when completed outside the secure area.
- Harvard FCU reserves the right to change or amend its Privacy and Confidentiality policy at any time by posting a new privacy policy.

Harvard
FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

- Information sent through e-mail is not secure. Please do not send confidential information (account number, social security number, etc.) through e-mail.

If you have questions about the practices of this site, or your dealings with this web site, you can contact:

Marketing Department
Harvard Federal Credit Union
104 Mt. Auburn Street, Floor 4
Cambridge, MA 02138-3846
617-495-4460